

Your Love

Your love, your perfect love; your love, tender and merciful;
Never changing, always enduring. Your love covers me.
Your love is unconditional. Your love is everlasting.
Never failing, faithful and true.
Your love has been my source of strength when my heart is failing.
I know that your love will carry me through.
Your love, your perfect love; Your love, tender and merciful;
Never changing, always enduring. Your love covers me.
